BRUCE WADDELL

Bruce Waddell has been on the ice since he was fourteen months old. Coming from a skating family, he grew up playing hockey and figure skating. His grandfather was legendary NHL Hall of Famer Red Kelly, his grandmother Andra McLaughlin competed three times at the World Figure Skating Championships, and his brother George competed at the World Level in Ice Dance.

Until recently, Bruce competed in both Ice Dance and Men's Singles, winning medals both nationally and internationally in both disciplines, representing Ontario at Canadians for more than a decade. With his former partner Natalie D'Alessandro, Bruce won the Silver Medal for Ice Dance at the 2022 Junior World Figure Skating Championships, a Bronze Medal at the 2020 Youth Olympics, national titles in Pre-Novice, Novice and Junior Ice Dance, as well as a Bronze Medal in Novice Men. Currently Bruce finished in the top seven at Canadians.
